Willard

DAVIS

WILLARD DAVIS AND
ELIZABETH LUCINA BOREN

Willard Davis was the son of Susan Molinda Wall Davis. He was born April 1, 1888, in Wallsburg. He married Elizabeth Lucina Boren, daughter of Samuel J. Boren and Abigail Maria Lamb, when he was 20 years of age.

His father at that time was U. S. mail carrier, and at the age of 16 Willard carried the mail by horse and cart and sometimes by horseback. After his marriage he farmed and still helped his father carry mail. In 1924 he was awarded the contract for himself and carried it two terms. On the next term, John Wall underbid him a few dollars, receiving the contract. Alma Mecham followed him, then Delton Batty before Willard was given it again. In all, Willard carried the mail 35 years.

several years. Instead of stopping at Heber, it was carried on to Park City, Utah. There were no cars then, so it was taken in buggies or by horseback. The roads were not kept open as today, so it was a hard trip through mud and snow. Many times they could only go through on horseback.

Willard and Elizabeth's children are: Hilda Davis, Mona Davis, LaMar Davis, Ray Davis and Roy Davis (twins), Violet Davis, Vera Davis, Odessa Davis, Merland Davis, Nyle Davis and Lyle Davis (twins), and Doyle Davis.

They have 41 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.
